SUNDAY, JUNE 13, 1915.

8.33 One month 6.56 One year 81 NDAY ONLY AILY ONLY vertiser does not.

to the Constitutional Convention that he was annoying, but other institutional Convention of fringement of international and humanithere be a reapportionment of Senate and the public to exterminate him. There was tiese diseases by means of public education. tarian laws. He rhetorically refers to Gerthe scheme. No good could result to

to the proposed new constitution. ment if squabbling and bickering over problem. political districts become the order of the side the duty of the convention on prinstate's needs than the present document, the Conservatives, the chief political oppoand must so commend it to the voters that nents, capitulated practically uncondiit may be ratified by them next fall. The tionally.

to such matters, follow the lead of President Root in endeavoring to keep politics dent Root in endeavoring to keep politics out of the convention and let the reapportionment issue alone.

The City's Firemen. In saying, "I believe the firemen are closer to the people than any other branch of the-city service," Commissioner Adams on was right if what he meant was right if what he meant was right if what he meant was closer to the hearts of the people." Fortunately for the firemen thay are not a little to the anxieties of parents. It was perhaps in another sense, as in the case of the people in another sense, as in the case of the people. No one ever heard of him till being. No one ever heard of him till performs the case of the people in constant contact with the people professionally; they do not have to minigh with them individually or to deal with them directly, whether individually or to deal with them directly, whether individually or to deal with them directly. In other words, the nature of collectively. In other words, the nature of the people than any other branch of the people. The object is to locate the man hunted, or, the branch of the clitter of the tribute.

Solve the tribute of the city of the firemen are much greater scope, yet the very variety of the tribute of the tribute of the tribute.

Solve the children fluttered like but to the tribute of the people than any other than any oth professional pride and interest.

to outstrip the Police Department in effi-to story. The close of its first half century ciency. The close of its first half century must clearly be taken on faith. of existence finds it the equal of any fire The Vocational Expert of the current often hurt each other in trying to escape. department in the world, a source of half type is, however, obsolescent, Dr. Marion surprised pride to the citizens of this town. Pritchard von David has hit on a method A Question for Ridder et Al. Accustomed to the relative inferiority of that is incomparably more accurate than To the Editor of The Tribune. department, with which they meddle so Unfortunately, the only account at hand little, ranks so high. To say that they is given "without going into a technical more remote unpleasantness in Europe" in your column title, ranks so high. To say that they is given "without going into a technical was their zeal for humanity as earnest as it Cornwall. N the fascinatingly interesting parade which What particularly pleases him is that his tions? marked the semi-centenary. And along method is wholly independent of the judgRiverside Drive there gathered, in conse-ment of the investigator, who has nothing hopest if they considered the semi-centenary. Sir: The ex-Secretary of State seems to Sir: If I might be honored in having sufficient to the investigator, who has nothing hopest if they considered the semi-centenary.

noticed. They deserve ten times the recog- on this such words as "shop." "lathe," and nition they received, great as it was, so forth are set up, each of them suggest-Pirst to Last—the Truth: News—Editorials Fortunately the real hero is more intering some calling or other. When a sufested in the performance of his duty than ficient number have been exhibited the Eager Acceptance of the Ex-Secin public applause, so the lack of their several reactions are compared, "showing retary of State's Invitation. just due will not impair their enthusiasm, to which vocation his entire system re- To the Editor of The Tribune.

Entered at the Postoffice at hem fork as Second Class Commstock's unparalleled purity of mind bling. We make good promptly if the ad- for he lacked the nice judgment to know some measure were it possible to secure ment over Mr. Lansing's signature does not the difference between an attack which the co-operation of the public at large, warrant such an insinuation of Let Reapportionment Alone!

Let Reapportionment Alone!

Let Reapportionment Alone! It is an ill-advised proposal which is advertising for it. He buzzed around—a ble increase in the death rate from organic. In to-day's statement Mr. Bryan character-the state in having the convention make a new apportionment rather than the Legislature next year, as would be the natural size in the properties of every year, as would be the natural however, can impose an individual judgtime state in having the convention make a printed and pictorial fifth and to work terest has been considered by Dr. Wile:

Mr. Bryan asks: "Shall the opponents of organized slaughter be silent while the disease spreads." Shall they, indeed? Not while the now, and therefore no individual ought to short stories on health, and so many other except a few misguided pacifists President Root has announced a policy Comstock's. The Police and Postoffice they all to be carried out on a large the lives of non-combatant American citizens:

"Thus far shalt thou go and no further." of non-partisanship in the proceedings of Departments, in their regular routine, are scale the whole community would never The Pharisaic reference to the Scriptures

Equal Suffrage in Denmark.

Wyoming, whether Richmond shall travel with Queens rather than with Rockland.
Such questions not only should be outfragists, and properly so, as a signal some measure of the habit of spitting, and competence the American nation can well be fragists, and properly so, as a rignal there is no reason to doubt that it could triumph that after several years' experience with respicted suffrage for women be trained in other ways by similar peace views one cannot but wonder whether vention's proceedings will not tend to countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have to face social, political and by cracking a Breath of the countries have the countr or a magrant pointed issue into the convention's proceedings will not tend to make votes for the proposed new constitution.

Neither-would the making of an apportion now work out surely to ment now work out surely to ment now work out surely to ment now work out surely to the advantage of the Republican delegates who might obtain a victory for their gates and its origin.

New York June 11, 1915. A. E. ABELL.

Bryan Unpatriotic.

Bryan Unpatriotic.

Sir: Mr. He Lusitania disaster and its conserved the feligious obstacles which make even the foligious obtains a form of the feligious obtains a feligious obstacles which make even the f gates who might obtain a victory for their plan, as they seem to think. It should not be forgotten by them that, thanks to a huge direct tax, the Republican party fix not too-popular with the voters at present. An attempt such as this to take members there shall be, whether New York City shall have its fair proportion of the membership according to its population or be limited unfairly, as it is now.

Togarding the methods pursued by this man in bis official capacity, and you certainly said the choice made for them, was governed in bis official capacity, and you certainly said the right thing in regard to him. I am of the eyes of the world, just as in the infrared part of this apretty good union man, and I have never lation or be limited unfairly, as it is now. the kind the delegates were elected to the humbler sort usually followed the the Demon Rum won't worry some drinkers the kind the delegates were elected to trades of their fathers, the more fortunate them.

Now that such professions as medicine are quite decent and trade is no longer regarded as wholly degrading, the chil- Contrary to the general belief, the blood-In saying, "I believe the firemen are much greater scope, yet the very variety The object is to locate the man hunted, or, their professional skill, knowledge and been at work long enough to be tested by breed that before going with an "Uncle Tom's whole on public health and welfare and bury carriers and in the stimulation of their his results. As half a generation at least Cabin" traume was a police dog. The blood him quick and deep in quicklime and disincapacity and in the stimulation of their his results. As half a generation at least Cabin" troupe was a police dog. The bloodwould be required to determine the justice hound liked policements on much that he always case of foot-and-mouth disease, with It is this fortunate removal of its mem- of his pretensions, the chances are that the wanted to run up and make friends whenever phasis on the mouth. bers from the hurly-burly of daily street impostor, if there were any in the busi- he saw one. The bloodhound used to break life that has helped the Fire Department ness, would never be found out in time away from the street parades to run into the are grateful for the knowledge is to put explanation," and all we can gather is that is now? Also, what would be their attitude the doctor depends on certain reactions were positions reversed and Germany instead Fortunately it was a perfect day for caused by suggestions offered to the child. of the Allies our chief customer for munisponded with the greatest emotion." The . Sir: Mr. Bryan invites the American people whole thing is simplicity itself, and no to "sit in judgment upon" his "decision to re-The Postoffice Department's excision of doubt it brings out those "suppressed sign rather than to share responsibility in it" ON RATES—By Mail, rostage Paid, outside Mr. Anthony Comstock's name from its wishes" to which so much importance is the note forwarded to Germany two days New York 5 50 list of inspectors is belated, but welcome, attached nowadays. Only it may be asked his invitation, one American offers the follows: admission of his unfitness to be Censor of whether emotional responses in early ing contribution in reply to his second pub-Morals at large. In 1872 he may have youth are a really trustworthy guide to lished statement since his resignation as Sec-FOREIGN HATES

CANADIAN RATES

DAILY AND SUNDAY

DAILY AND SUNDAY

TO BE STORM THE SUNDAY ONLY

SUNDAY ONLY

SUNDAY ONLY

Morals at large. In 1872 he may have vocational aptitude. How many of the vocational aptitude a many years ago—swamped under the time would have been cowboys or locomo- Bryan's right to resign an office which neces-

It is eminently desirable to suppress conceivable way of stirring up popular inthe convention. That is eminently desirable, but absolutely impossible of attainment if squabbling and bickering over ment if squabbling and bickering over the order of the state of the problem.

Departments, in their regular routine, are have a chance to forget for a moment the problem.

The final state reference to the state of the same manufacture and unconvincing and the problem.

The final state reference to the state of the same manufacture and unconvincing and the problem.

The final state reference to the state of the same and the problem.

The final state reference to the same and the same manufacture and unconvincing and the problem.

The final state reference to the same and the same manufacture and unconvincing and the problem.

The final state reference to the same and the same manufacture and unconvincing and the problem.

fest absurdities. A doctor in a letter to to Europe. The Women's Peace party has de "The New York Medical Journal" de- nied responsibility for it, and the president partisan and factional divisions and bitterness bound to result from the injection of a flagrant political issue into the con-their political and economic value in so a huge direct tax, the Republican party is not too-popular with the voters at present. An attempt such as this to take advantage of the Republican majority in the convention for purely partisan, if not overreach itself and so to endanger the proposed constitution.

This convention has yet to settle what This convention has yet to settle what This convention has yet to settle what This convention has yet to generate the proposed constitution.

This convention has yet to settle what This nation has fertunately and the find his proposed easily the high seas under rights which the modern way of teaching the high sexuasple of the world, including generate to the whole he secussable on heavy discovered by Pestalozzi and the the folice secussable of the matter the slaughter of American cititees travelling the high sexuasple of the world, including generate the proposed

The Passive Bloodhound.

(From The Springfield Republican.,

out of the back windows at the same time, and To the Editor of The Tribune.

AN UNHYPHENATED AMERICAN the battlefield, while here they pass un- . A screen is placed before the child, and New York, June 7, 1915.

IN JUDGMENT OF BRYAN

man's own mistakes, pettiness and vain-tive engineers to-day had they chosen states the performance of a duty contrary to their calling by electricity? You can purchase merchandise advertised on thousands of ordinarily decent citizens on thousands of thousands of thousands of ordinarily decent citizens on thousands of ordinarily decent citizens of a vitally important internation, merely to justify his resignation, calls of the condemnation of citizens to whom the condemnati if dissatisfaction results in any case THE TRIBUNE guarantees pay your money back upon request. No red tape, no quib-being made by some Republican delegates to the Constitutional Convention that Assembly districts by that body. Nothing but a grab at partisan advantage lies in minate himself in time.

the public to exterminate him. There was a second of this project it is impossible to enter. Suffice it that every should never be used with a drink-crazed in-course of events under the present consti-tution's policy. Much harm might result have the power which will cease to be schemes have been planned, that were ready to say to the deliberate destroyers of that Dr. Wile desires to provide against. are the only followers of the Prince of Peace, matters of policy rather than details. It It is easy to mock at such proposals as while the President and all who support him matters of policy rather than details. It is hardly on the plane of duty of the convention to spend hours debating whether Livingston County shall be joined with Standard and subsequent at large arrayed on the side of war. This is ing the services of school children for in Mr. Bryan's exarcely consistent with the assertions made ing the services of school children for in Mr. Bryan's letter of resignation a great deal can be done by advertising the services of school children for in Mr. Bryan's letter of resignation a great deal can be done by advertising to be elected to office just as may men, but the conditions are more liberal than in methods of this kind has been fully domain. Steuben rather than with Genesee and the conditions are more liberal than in strated in other liberal than in strateging liberal than in s Steuben rather than with Genesee and the conditions are more liberal than in strated in other instances. The important the other Scandinavian countries and in the other Scandinavian countries and in thing is to see that it is done in a sensiefficient work. This convention, if it is to be worth anything to the state, must prothe Conservatives, the chief political oppo"tooth brush drill" has led to some manirents conjugated practically uncondi-longer be any hyphenated Americans. War ers have been handicapped for want of space, will unite this nation as nothing else can, and yet I have witnessed happy upturned and we are ready. HAROLD FOGEL.

The space of the commission has nothing else can, and yet I have witnessed happy upturned faces in our orphan home kindergartens as faces in our orphan home kinderg nd we are ready. Ha New York, June 11, 1915.

Considers Bryan Dead.

t-and-mouth disease, with the em-FRED C. LOUNSBURY.

Plainfield, N. J., June 11, 1915.

Start Daniels Going, Too.

Those who remember your editoria

Cornwall, N. Y., June 9, 1915.

Bryan's Smallness.

the "smoke-caters," whose daily deeds of valor, as Commissioner Adamson points out, would win them medals of the first out, would win them medals of the possess less power of reading out, would win them medals of the possess less power of reading out, would win them medals of the possess less power of reading of America?

I have tried quite a number of the editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I can't help voicing a protest, or powerful papers refer to him as "wm. jowerful papers refer to him as Riverside Drive there gathered, in conse- ment of the investigator, who has nothing honest if they ceased to use our country to so long as the President advertises him every cient space in your paper, would like to ex-E. C. BRIDGMAN.

New York, June 10, 1915.

MRS. MALAPROPAGANDA.

KINDERGARTENS' VALUE

done for the little children of our great c.ty

done for the little children of our great c.ty

Would that we had more men like Mr. Neilrecord of us if we continue in the directles To suggest that this nation could possibly and for the little children of our great city would that we had more men like Mr. Neil-record of us if we continue in the son and Mr. Ross devoting their time and our government is now plunging?

lation or be limited unfairly, as it is now.

These are weighty questions, properly within the scheme of the convention's work, and not matters of partisan political controversy. These are questions of the kind the delegates were elected to on neutral or belligerent vessels workers in social circles, who have taught respect and admiration. One man like Walsh sanguinary and destructive war of all the And the military arm of our government the children under their care self-activity, will do more to injure the cause of labor than explosives and weapons with which they are > the children have led me to their sprouting Rochester, N. Y., June 7, 1915. bulbs. I have seen in the crowded Italian section a little garden behind a church, where the tall tenements almost shut out the sur-in our midst I am sure we shall find many who are working toward his ideal. Let us encourage the large company of young women titude of the organizations named. It is stitute an unwarrantable and reprehensive or collectively. In other words, the natural aptitudes and necessities of their perfection give them a certain aloofness which is of the greatest value to be. One can only say supposed them a certain aloofness which is of the greatest value to be able to detect their natural aptitudes and feeling of the whole people would one and feeling of the whole people would one and feeling think, may unintentionally and feeling to be able to detect their natural aptitudes and feeling of the whole people would one and feeling to be able to detect their natural aptitudes and feeling to be able to detect the whole people would feel deader, nor all deader, nor all deader and will do so again. The whole people would feel deader and will do so again. The whole people would feel deader and will do so again. The people should be and feeling to be and feeling to be able to detect their natural aptitudes and feeli who will be busy with their little plots durwho will be busy with their little plots durwho will be busy with their little plots durwere made not by, but to, the conference.

NELSON S. SPENCER, President. ing the summer and bring the results of their labor for approval in the fall. Large tracts have been set aside in The Bronx, where selfelected boy gardeners will spend many busy, happy hours during the summer working un-der the direction of experts. Do we need to Sir: Your editorial on Mexic on "Mr. Wilson's Secretary of State" are glad sum up other lines of beneficent work for ward E. Fuchs. It hit the nail squarely on the head, for every one of the orators he mentions is well known throughout the cay CHAMPION OF THE MILLIONS carnest and sincere endeavors to aid a What the Teachers Accomplish in

Madison Square Orators.

New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City.

What the Teachers Accomplish in New York City. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: The past few weeks have been so filled

Sir: The past few weeks have been so filled with the Lusitania disaster and its consequences that I have wanted until now to enter but preach day in and day out "Peace on man question."

should stand ready and willing to back up its demands by force.

Peace, if with honor; if not, there will no longer be any hyphenated Americans. War are here handlespread for want of space.

"Not By, but To."

Let us recognize all the forces that are at ence, but no such suggestions were adopted or should decide the matter. Let us recognize all the forces that are at work in our city to bring the children clore to nature. The Brooklyn Botanical Garden is stimulating a large number of children at the conference or even seriously independent of the conference or even seriously. It is fortunate, indeed, that henceforth, independent of the conference or even seriously independent or should decide the matter.

It is fortunate, indeed, that henceforth, in

New York, June 8, 1915.

Send the Utes to Europe.

Sir: Your editorial on Mexico in the issue to find this morning on The Tribune's front children? One has only to read of the parks of June 3 emphasizes the necessity of an exto find this morning on The Tribune's front page a concrete announcement of fact concerning Mr. Bryan. And many of them must hospital which touches at many points during army. I should like to suggest that should To the Editor of The Tribune. managed municipal services New Yorkers fand it a little hard to realize that this one department, with which they meddle so little, ranks so high. To say that they is given "without going into a technical of the Editor of The Tribune.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I have derived so much pleasure lated to suggest that should it become necessary to fight Germany we fight savages with savages and send those that this one department, with which they meddle so little, ranks so high. To say that they is given "without going into a technical more remote unpleasantness in Europe?" in your columns. spirit of true Christian benevolence toward child life. CAROLYN COIT MELENEY

Brooklyn, June 5, 1915.

Sand other tribes who long and pine for you give us. The pages devoted to battle, to Europe. They might be able to terests of women and children I keep on the control of the children's Page 1.

Which Germany has failed to give the world it read the whole of the Children's Page 1. and would leave our army to deal with Mexico.

L. B. FAIRFIELD.

Bristol, Conn., June 5, 1915.

A Cruel Cartoon.

Light the whole of the Children's Page 1 may little nice, five years old, and at a page 1 last month she recited one of the charmed poems that appeared there a few weeks an "My Three Dolls," with great success.

Light the whole of the Children's Page 1 may little nice, five years old, and at a page 2 may leave the control of the Children's Page 1 may leave the control of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 1 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 2 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the whole of the Children's Page 3 may leave the whole of the whole

When our government has finally decided all, of whatever race or nationality, sheal be pro-American and nothing else. But so to the very moment of that decision it is the sclemn duty of every American to speak his mind in no uncertain tone, that our President and Congress, who profess to represent the

It is fortunate, indeed, that henceforth, whose honor and fearlessness are un before the world to voice the mind of millions who thus far have been unbeard millions who thus far have been united who have been ignored. God keep us from who have been ignored. God keep us from this war! But if war it must be let the this war! But if war it must be let the this war! voice of the nation, the whole nation

DELMAR E. HAWKINS. heard. Syracuse, N. Y., June 9, 1915. Likes the Sunday Tribune.

I have tried quite a number of the cooking